Oregon's Original Multi-Dealer RV Show Just Keeps Getting Better!

For 32 years, the Salem Fall RV Show has brought together the region's most respected RV dealers to one location for the biggest RV sale of the year, providing the opportunity for you to literally save thousands on the new or used RV you've been dreaming about. Oregon's original multi-dealer RV show since 1978, the Salem Fall RV Show offers you the chance to see the latest technology and product innovations in the RV industry with more than 150 product lines, as well as on-site demonstrations and expertise from on-site industry experts. Don't miss your chance to "Go All the Way Green, and Get back to Nature," without giving up the comforts of home, at the 2011 Salem Fall RV Show.

Come see the entire line of 2011 models with end of summer pricing, just in time for your next hunting, fishing, or camping trip. There's simply too much here to see in one day, so as always, admission is good for all four days. With special show pricing guaranteed only until 5 PM on Sunday, this is the one event you truly can't afford to miss. Don't wait for prices to go up, take advantage of the lowest priced new and used RV's in history, and We'll see you at the show!
